YOUR FACE

No matter how bright, your face loses half its charm by the exhibition of unsightly teeth. If extracted the gum may shrink and make bad wrinkles. If neglected they will spread decay to others, and make your breath bad. Have your teeth attended to now.F. L. FERGUSON, D. D. S.

BURNED TO DEATHNakama, Japanese woman, wife of Mitsuki, wrestler, and mother of two small children, tried to replenish the oil in a glass oil lamp while the wick still held the flame about 5:15 o'clock last evening with the result that the lamp exploded, saturated her kimono and hair with oil, burned her so badly that death result some hours later and burned the two-story tenement on the corner of a lane that runs from Liliha street to Desha lane.Nakama ran screaming downstairs from the back veranda and into the seven-foot board fence enclosure, to roll her blazing body in a pool. There she lay and writhed and screamed, while the flames burned out her sight, consumed her hair, devoured her nose, crisped her ears and otherwise completed a hellish torture.Police Officer No. 7, Kawahiki, bicycle cop, was first on the scene of the fire, although he was off duty at the time.
He heard a woman's cry of agony and rushed to the fence and pulled himself up to look over. He and Superintendent Rath of the Palama Mission and Harry Auld broke through the fence with axes from the fire machines and lifted the dying woman from the puddle.
She got on her feet and attempted to walk; she leaned against the fence, presenting a spectacle calculated to live forever in the minds of those who saw. She was blind. The life that remained in her was exquisite torture.
Before she was carried away a Japanese, crazed because he thought she was his wife, rushed to her as she stood by the fence. Mrs. Rath had been rubbing olive oil on the charred flesh to alleviate suffering.The Japanese man struck a match on his trousers and held it to the burned woman's remnant of a face. He was at once placed under arrest, in the excitement, since at the time it was thought that an attempt was being made to set fire to her again. Later explanations were in order and the Japanese stated that he struck the match to look at the woman's face. She was not his wife. She was the wife of Mitsuki who soon had his innings of agony upon learning the facts.Nakama died at the Queen's hospital at 11:15 o'clock.The building was almost destroyed by the flames. Considering that many of the firemen were new hands, many old ones having resigned because of reduced salaries, a splendid fight against the flames was made and surrounding property was undamaged. There were 18 policemen at the fire.200,000 BAGS SUGAR ON KAUIStrong trades and choppy seas characterized the outward and inward trips of the S. S. Mikahala which arrived at 5:30 o'clock this morning from Kauai ports. The Mikahala, Captain Gregory brought 5 cabin passengers and 32 on deck to Honolulu and her inward freight consisted of 4,200 bags of sugar, 100 bags of taro, 2 horses, 62 empty wine casks and 48 packages of sundries.Purser William E. Miles reports the bark W. B. Flint as having reached Makaweli yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The S. S. Nihau was at Ma-kaweli, loading sugar, and the barkentine Hawaii was at Elele.The following sugar awaits shipment

W. T. 2,000; M. S. 38,000 and K. S., 6,300, making a total of nearly 200,000 bags of sugar.The Mikahala sails again for Kauai ports at 5 p. m. tomorrow.Senate May ReconsiderThere is an attempt to be made to try and override the Governor's veto of Senate Bill No. 27, placing the pay of laborers at not less than $1.50 a day on certain work for the Territory or subdivision thereof. The measure was considered in the Senate yesterday afternoon and the Governor's veto was sustained. Vice-President Kalama, who had introduced the measure originally, voted in favor of sustaining the Governor's veto. His action occasion-$2500

Wailuku Sugar
Company
Fractional Shares

FRIDAY, MAR. 29, 1907,

At my salesroom, 857 Kakaumahu street, Honolulu, I am instructed by the Treasurer of the Wailuku Sugar Co. to sell at Public Auction to the highest bidder six (6) paid up shares of the capital stock of the said company same being the total of fractional shares left over from the issue of March 31, 1907.JAS. F. MORGAN AUCTIONEER.ed considerable comment in the Senate.It is likely that a motion will be made at the afternoon session today to reconsider the vote taken yesterday, as it is desired by some to enact the measure despite the Governor's veto. If the measure is not reconsidered today it may be brought up later in the week.LEGISLATORS TO REVIEW MILITIAIN COMPANY WITH GOVERNOR LATER SHORTLY—THE REVIEW WILL TAKE PLACE IN APRIL.Governor Carter and members of the legislature will review the National Guard early in April. Orders for the regiment to assemble at the armory at 7:30 of April 2 have been issued by Colonel Jones. The review will be held subsequent to that date, as the assembly on April 2 is a sort of preliminary drill.
